

North Pocono

This summer, Allison Scherger participated in multiple workshops at the National Youth Leadership Forum: Digital Media, Film & Journalism day camp in

New York.

In her junior year, Allison's favorite class is Journalism II, an elective at North

Pocono.

"I love every aspect of the class, from broadcasting and editing to photojournalism and writing," she said.

She already has plans to pursue a degree in broadcast journalism and/or graphic design at Syracuse University. Allison, who achieves high honors, also takes many accelerated and Advanced Placement courses, including AP world history, English, physics and accelerated math concepts.

A member of Students Against Destructive Decisions, she is also in the Interact club; Future Business Leaders of America, where she placed first in publication design during regionals; mathletes club; plays mallet percussion in marching band; a student council representative and class secretary; and member of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization. Allison dances at Turi Studio of Dance.

She also completed a workshop at the New York Film Academy.
