The creative arts have been Evan Goryl's passion throughout his career at North Pocono High School.

The senior recently played the lead role of Albert Peterson in the school's production of "Bye Bye Birdie," wrapping up four years of participation in productions. Evan traveled to Haiti to acquire artwork to display at his family's business, Moscow Clayworks, with the proceeds from the pieces used to buy water filters for the Haitian people affected by the earthquake.

Evan has been a member of the orchestra for four years, is a marching band manager, participates in improv club and Science Olympiad, and is a member of the golf and bowling teams.

His plans to attend West Chester University for music education.
