North Pocono

Among his proudest achievements during high school, Sergei Bilardi highlighted receiving the Wright Brothers Award for achieving the rank of cadet staff sergeant as a member of the Civil Air Patrol and getting the boys' coach Ed Juba Award for his devotion and commitment to cross country.

The senior is a member of the National Honor Society, participated in the Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science, where he earned a second-place award, and was part of Science Olympiad.

For his senior project, Sergei helped set up and manage "Race Against Hunger" to raise money for St. Francis of Assisi Kitchen.

He works at Elmhurst Country Club and Montage Mountain and freelances as a photographer and landscaper.
