Students from 50 schools throughout Northeastern and Central Pennsylvania competed in individual and team events at the 2015 Northeast Regional Science Olympiad, held Wednesday at Penn State Wilkes-Barre in Lehman Township.

The Science Olympiad is devoted to increasing student interest in science, recognizing outstanding achievement, and improving the quality of science education.

The winners of this regional contest advance to state competition at Juniata College in April.

Division B (middle school) winners were Wyoming Area Secondary Center, first place; Park Forest Middle School, second place; Wayne Highlands Middle School, third place; JT Lambert, fourth place; Wilkes-Barre Academy, fifth place; Abington Heights Middle School, sixth place; and Wallenpaupack Middle School, seventh place.

Division C (high school) winners were North Pocono High School, first place; Stroudsburg High School, second place; Abington Heights High School, third place; Wyoming Area Secondary Center, fourth place; Lehighton High School, fifth place; and Dallas High School, sixth place.
