

>

January 13, 2015 10:08AM

Print Page

Student of the Week: Jacqueline Strausser

North Pocono High School's Student of the Week!

Name: Jacqueline Strausser

Hometown: Gouldsboro

Parents: Karol and Robert Strausser, Jr.

Grandparent(s): Marie and Robert Strausser, Sr., Audrey and Robert Anderson

Q. What is your senior project? Please include a brief description.

A. I along with Olivia Pehanick and Kaitlyn McDonough will host a cheerleading camp -- "Poms for Paws" -- for students in the district, teaching cheer motions, dances, and stunts. The money collected from registration will be donated to the Griffin Pond Animal Shelter.

Q. Are you a member of any school clubs?

A. I am a member of National Honor Society (officer), SADD (president), and Student Council (historian).

Q. Do you participate in any school sports?

A. I am captain of the varsity football cheerleading squad.

Q. Have you received any honors or awards?

A. Top 20 of Class recognition, National Honor Society recognition, High Honors since freshman year, Perfect Attendance 2013-14, and UCA All-American Cheerleader 2103-14.

Q. Are you involved in any community activities?

A. I sometimes volunteer at Golden Living Nursing Home in Scranton.

Q. What is your favorite class and why?

A. Physics; I love learning how the subject is applied to our everyday lives.

Q. Who has been your favorite/most influential teacher and why?

A. Dr. Croom; he is not only a great teacher, but he is also always excited about what he is teaching, whether it be Newton's Laws or an important life lesson on how we are maturing.

Q. What is your fondest high school memory?

A. Winning spirit week junior year and competing with my cheer squad at nationals in 2013.

Q. What are your future plans? If attending college, please include school and field of study.

A. I hope to attend Misericordia University to study occupational therapy.

<http://www.moscowvillager.com/article/20150113/NEWS/150119963>

Print Page